This 11th edition features new sections on religious and world art, green buildings, graphic design, and conceptual art, along with an Art Tour for Los Angeles and over 100 new images in fashion, crafts, industrial design, and architecture. In addition, a comprehensive set of online tools in MindTap makes it easier than ever for students to study and learn the material, regardless of their particular learning styles. Developing critical thinking skills involves analyzing and comparing different artworks, such as Donatello's and Michelangelo's sculptures with Picasso's "Les Demoiselles d'Avignon" and Colescott's interpretation of it in "Les Demoiselles d'Alabama." The "Close Look" feature highlights interesting topics, like the mysteries surrounding King Tut's image and van Gogh's ear. The updated book includes new sections on art's connection to religion, global perspectives, eco-friendly buildings, and conceptual art movements. It also features guided tours of major cities in the US, including Los Angeles, Chicago, New York, Washington D.C., Dallas/Forth Worth, and others.
